Nina Telegin, 20:08

Yes!

Natalia Ulyanova, 20:08

will they have an image of elephant if they exchange&

Tamara Kekeyeva, 20:09

creative and motivating start!

Natalia chunikhina, 20:10

Everything depends upon the general cultural level and a historical background

Vlasova Natasha, 20:11

how did you like it in Kazan?

Anastasia Khodakova, 20:11

Language diversity is like biodiversity - it should be preserved

Nina Telegin, 20:12

I agree with you

Oksana Sokolenko, 20:12

Anastasia nice to meet you, very sound words

Valery Lipatova, 20:14

It is very interesting to communicate with people from other countries. Mostly, because of their different culture. New knowledge motivate .

Anastasia Khodakova, 20:14

that's exactly the focus of the project! teach and learn how to speak about your culture

Tamara Kekeyeva, 20:15

what's up was a great surprise for me when I first heard it, one of the cultural experiences inUS

Anastasia Khodakova, 20:15

Yulia Golskaya, please, stop broadcasting

Anastasia Khodakova, 20:15

thank you

Anastasia Khodakova, 20:17

I think the big C is also important

Valery Lipatova, 20:17

Some scientists say "low culture and high culture "

Svetlana Baluyan, 20:17

Anastasia Khodakova, 20:25

it does not always work in Russia

Vlasova Natasha, 20:26

it sometimes depends...

Jennifer Depto, 20:26

my biggest culture shock when I returned to the US in 2001 was Walmart with the aisles and aisles of products - most of it processed

Valery Lipatova, 20:26

They even can serve you chicken instead of rabbit..and it's OK for them
